C 3 Recruiting in International Companies (1 CP)

Ellen Rana, University of Applied Sciences Koblenz

Course Description

You’ve spent the last few years deeply involved in academia and research. Now you’ve finally got your PhD and have to enter the real world. Congratulations! Finding a job in the private sector working for an international company is a dream for many. However, understanding job adverts and knowing what the company actually wants is not as straightforward as you might think. This two-day workshop discusses the language of adverts and what should be included in your CV to make you as attractive as possible. There’s much more to it than just stating your PhD title...
